

6516208620.txt

Let the private sector operate in competition, especially when I pay directly for it. The old way of commercial "free" radio is going to the wayside. The traffic and weather is very important and should be broadcast in every media possible. This is more of a public service than a contract issue.